

St. James Fall Family Newsletter

Let's Celebrate!

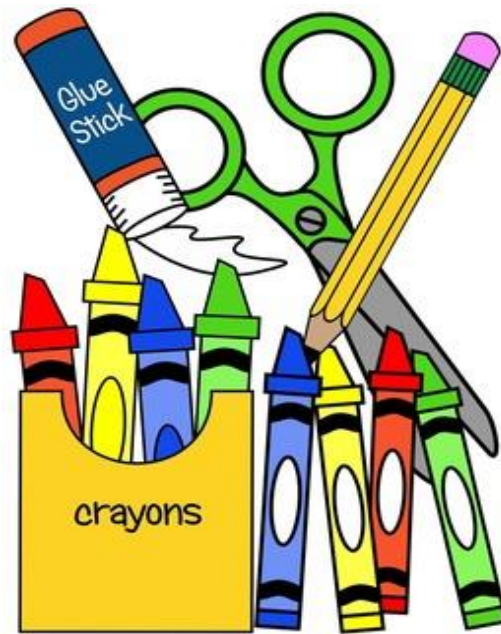

It's party time! Join us in the parish hall on Sunday, September 8, after the 10 a.m. service. Cake, ice cream, face painting, balloons, and treats for the children!

Our theme for the fall is Heroes and Heroines of the Old Testament:

Sep. 8	Noah	Oct. 20	David
Sep. 15	Moses	Oct. 27*	Solomon
Sep. 22	Joshua	Nov. 3	Elijah
Sep. 29*	Rahab	Nov. 10	Jonah
Oct. 6	Deborah	Nov. 17	Daniel
Oct. 13	Samson	Nov. 24*	Esther

*A Children's homily is offered on the last Sunday of the month during the 10 a.m. service. Sunday school begins at 9:45 in the basement of the parish hall, and children will rejoin their families in the sanctuary every Sunday to participate in Eucharist.

Sunday School Offering for September and October:

During Sunday school in September and October, we will be collecting school supplies to offer to children in the neighborhood elementary schools who might not have what they need. Here are some needed items:

- 10 count markers
- Jumbo Glue Sticks
- Tissues
- Disinfectant wipes
- 24 count crayons
- Baby wipes
- Plastic Pencil Boxes
- Paper Towels
- Sharpened pencils
- Blunt, Small/Medium-Sized Scissors
- Dry-Erase Markers
- Ziploc Bags (gallon size & sandwich)
- Loose leaf wide-ruled paper
- Composition books
- Spiral notebooks
- 3 ring binders (1 or 1.5 inch)
- Reusable plastic water bottles

Ever had your child ask you why we go to church? Love this answer!

Nursery during the 10 a.m. service resumes on Sep. 8

Are your little ones making it hard for you to focus on the church service? We love to hear their coos and cries, but if you need a break, we have some volunteers in a well-stocked nursery (located in the church house next to the sanctuary) who would love to assist you!
